

Illustrator Maurício Corteletti Água Viva is floating in the river of life. He discovered love inside of him and now he travels to a lot of places trying to share, receive and understand more about this huge feeling. He's learning from the infinite daily lessons and finding art in good hugs, nice companies and true souls. Drawing, writing and playing music are his ways to express his love, but his favourite art form is being.